With the decision of the Constitutional Court dated 26.7.2023 and numbered 2022/144E.,

“With the decision of the Constitutional Court dated 26.7.2023 and numbered 2022/144E., 2023/137K., the phrase “from the announcement of the verdict” in Article 273/1 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has been annulled on the grounds that it is neither necessary nor proportionate, and the practice of submitting a time limit preservation petition in the application for appeal has been terminated. The decision will enter into force nine months after its publication in the Official Gazette.”
