Decision of the Constitutional Court dated 13/9/2022 and numbered 2018/19950

With its decision dated 13/9/2022 and numbered 2018/19950, the Constitutional Court has decided that punishment for the “...it is almost carrying out a fraudulent activity rather than providing a lawyer service.” statements of the applicant in its reply letter to the lawyer, who has filed a lawsuit for the collection of the attorney’s fee, was a violation of the freedom of expression of the applicant.
